Committee Updates

- Investment – Doing good.
- Long Term Planning / Capital Improvements – Bill Ruck – Feasibility plan, had a meeting with Batterman to find out what would be needed to do this and the cost. This would look into the feasibility of a new club house and indoor range. Giving three possible locations. Cost to not go over $3000. This is coming from committee (motion not required). Discussion. Voted and Approved
- Holster/ Draw Policy – 28 more members qualified. Total 70 members qualified to date. Fees turned in.
- Financial Oversight Committee – NO REPORT
- Restated Articles of Incorporation & By-Laws – Committee established, Jon Nortemenn, John Armstrong and Gary Larson. Meeting will be next week.

Old Business

- March 23& 24, 2019 BRC Gun Show @ Boundaries. Fees paid out for ads and Boundaries. Place seems to be too small for this gun show was noted.
- East Bay Range – Defense range would like to take charge of maintaining the East Bay range. Motion to move the equipment to this (Tim Keinbaum) Second (Kyle Schliem). Discussion. Voted and Approved
- Mentor Program – This idea would create a new board position. This person would be the liaison to coordinate with other discipline directors to help club members with a one on one shooting skill development. Wally Marshall suggested doing a committee to set this up. Larry Radant and Everett Bennett on the committee.
- News Letter Articles due Friday
- Summer picnic with board – need volunteers to help Dennis plan.

New Business

- Getz First Aid Program – Getting prices to maintain our first aid kits. They will only charge as they replace items. No charge for them to come out.
- Harley Whitt – The phone number on the Club's Google search is his phone number. He would like it removed.

Meeting Adjourned.
